DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dalquist, III et al.

There is disclosed in Dalquist a cooking vessel comprising: a base 18 having an interior surface including a lower portion forming a cooking surface 22; and an angled handle 28 providing an elongate arm 32 forming a pistol-type gripping portion and a handle grip member 40 movable between a first and second position. In regards to the handle being detachable and exchangeable with a second handle, it is clear that the handle can be removed from the base by way of a handle attachment member and handle release. It is also clear that another handle could be placed upon the base, which serves the same function as the present handle.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5 and 7-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dalquist in view of Wang.

Dalquist, as discussed above, discloses the claimed subject matter except for a textured food retention surface above the main cooking surface.

Wang discloses a textured cooking surface including the texture being a pattern of elongate recesses or grooves 25, 29 which form dimples 24, 27.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the cooking vessel of Dalquist with the retention surface taught in Wang, in order to allow for the separation of food items during a cooking process.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dalquist in view of Hung.

Hung discloses the use of a detachable casserole-style handle 1 or elongate handle 3.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to substitute one of the handles of Dalquist with the casserole-style handle disclosed in Hung, in order to provide an alternative handle arrangement.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 15-25, 37, 38 and 40 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
